Re: April Quarterly Report (01/01/2014 – 03/31/2014)
Notice from FEC

Ms. Davis:

Pursuant to your letter to the Campaign Committee dated April 21, 2014, noting the excessive contributions from individuals, R. Frederick Decosimo, John Bailey Jones and William Jones, III, the committee has taken the following actions:

1. R. Frederick Decosimo – The campaign contribution dated 3/20/2014 was re-designated from the primary election to the general election. This was recorded in our original report in error. The campaign contribution was originally intended as a general election contribution. This has been corrected in our amended report.
2. John Bailey Jones – The campaign contribution dated 2/28/2014 was partially refunded. The contributor exceeded the limit of contributions from individuals by $2,300. Of the $2,500 contribution received on 2/28/2014, $200 was retained by the campaign and the remaining $2,300 was refunded to the contributor. A copy of the refund check is attached.
3. William Jones, III – The campaign contribution dated 2/28/2014 was partially refunded. The contributor exceeded the limit of contributions from individuals by $2,300. Of the $2,500 contribution received on 2/28/2014, $200 was retained by the campaign and the remaining $2,300 was refunded to the contributor. A copy of the refund check is attached.

Regarding the excessive contributions from other committees to this Campaign Committee, the two $5,000 contributions received from the House Conservatives Fund dated 3/30/2014 that were both designated to the primary election was an error in recording in our original report. The second $5,000 check was originally intended as a general election contribution. This has been corrected in our amended report.

As requested in the aforementioned letter from the Federal Election Commission, we have attached copies of the checks refunding the excess contributions received from John Bailey Jones and William Jones, III. You may note that the check to William Jones, III is dated differently than the check to John Bailey Jones. Both refund checks were originally written and mailed to the contributors on 4/21/2014, but
